Farewell to the Odd Bits of Crockery and China

With the large shipments of Crockery that are soon to be coming for our Spring trade, we must prepare a way for their display and there's only one way to do it, get rid of the single pieces and odds and ends that take up lots of room. We have made big reductions on all such things and have a large table loaded with them. Your inspection is solicited.

We know by the number of large Crockery sales we made the past week, both in town and out, that our prices are appreciated and we mean that our prices shall prove to you that we are head-quarters for Crockery and China.

FORGERY ALLEGED.

Westfield, Mass., Man Is Wanted by Burlington Police.

Burlington, Jan. 16.—The police are looking for a man who gave his name as J. G. Gleeson and his residence as Westfield, Mass. He is wanted to answer to the charge of forgery, and there may be other charges to be preferred against him.

Gleeson appeared at a local job printing office with an order for cards and stationery, which he paid for on delivery. He said that his business was the repairing of chairs, furniture, etc., and that a canvass of the city, especially the University of Vermont, had assured him work enough to warrant his opening business in this city. He intended, he said, to send at once to Westfield for several assistants and had engaged rooms on Champlain street for the purpose of his business. Gleeson said to be an extensive repairer of antique furniture and the like, who intended to locate in this city. He said that he intended to deposit $2,000 with the bank and that at no time would the account be drawn upon to exceed $1,500.

A few days ago a check was presented at the bank for payment purporting to be signed by Rev. P. J. Barrett, and it is alleged that this check passed through Gleeson's hands. It was forged, it is further alleged, and inquiry in Westfield from substantial authorities fails to elicit any knowledge of any such person as Gleeson.

He obtained mileage at the offices of the various mileage brokers about the city for the ostensible purpose of bringing his wife here, but so far as can be ascertained with indifferent success. His present whereabouts is unknown.

DISQUIETING NEWS.

Comes from Vladivostok, Telling of Destruction of Prisons.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 16.—Disquieting news is received from Vladivostok where it is reported all prisons were destroyed by fire and the prisoners released.

Commercial Travelers Meet.

There was a largely attended and interesting meeting of Burlington Council, No. 211, United Commercial Travelers of America, Saturday evening, the occasion being the visit to the council of two officers of the Grand Council of New England, Grand Counselor W. B. Ayer of Providence, R. I., and Grand Conductor C. W. Barnard of Boston. About 100 members were present. There were 185 members in Burlington council.

Five new members were admitted at the meeting Saturday evening. The contest which has been waged for new members closed Saturday evening. The sides were captained by A. B. Simonds and Geo. B. Allen and each side succeeded in bringing 25 new members into the council. It was understood that the losing side should entertain the council with a banquet, but as the contest resulted in a tie, the banquet will be a joint one. It will probably be given some time in March.

Notice to Clansmen.

All patrons of Clan Gordon library who have books in their possession will please return them to the librarian on or before Saturday, January 20th, as there have been a number of new books added to the library lately, and it will therefore be necessary to re-catalogue all books. To avoid any hindrance in this work it is hoped all books will be turned in at once.

Notice!

A regular meeting of Tool Sharpener's Branch, No. 2, G. C. N. U., will be held in their hall, Nichols block, on Wednesday evening, January 17, 1906, at 7 o'clock. James Mutch, secretary.

VINCITIA LODGE,
No. 10, K. of P.

The Daylight Store

JUST WHAT WE EXPECTED

When we marked Children's Garments as low as 62c and had two racks full at only half price, giving our trade a $5.00 Child's Coat for only $2.50. We expected a rush and it came. This will be a very busy week in our garment department—it always is when the word goes out that Children's Garments are half price.

GARMENT DEPARTMENT.

We have added to our sale of Children's Garments all of our Ladies' Cloth and Fur Garments at less than cost to close.

Ladies' Silk Waists at less than cost to close.

Ladies' Wool Suits in long or short jackets at very low prices. Many of these Suits will go in with our new Suits if not sold in this sale, as they are but very little different from new styles. We have new Suits bought, so we know what we are saying.

BARGAIN TABLES.

You cannot well afford to pass our bargain tables without a good look, as there are values here made to close these goods before stock day.

Our Remnant table should be noticed, as lots of desirable goods drop here at but a part of their cost.

You should take one look at our Dress Trimmings on table No. 1, as they are at half price or less. Here are Trimmings that can be worked into sections or bands for shirt waists or suits.

Mohair Voiles on Bargain Tables.

This is a cloth selling so well that last season we could furnish but half of the time. They sold at 15 cents per yard and looked to be 25-cent values.

You will consider this to be a fortunate purchase. They were bought by us last September for our February sale.

We will put these goods on our tables and in our window Tuesday noon, marked with a large placard. Your Choice for 10 Cents per Yard.

The ladies of the M. E. church realized $11 at their supper and entertainment last Friday evening, and wish to extend thanks to L. B. Adams, who furnished a liberal share of the entertainment with his phonograph.

Lealie Tucker and William Pike have sent to their homes here souvenir books of the famous carnival of roses, which took place in Pasadena, Jan. 1st, 1906. Mr. Pike also sent one to the Jaquith library for the benefit of the readers of our town.

County Game Warden J. Berton Pike was in Barre city Friday and arrested A. Zannotta and D. D. Vecch on a warrant issued by State's Attorney Jackson, charging them with the keeping of dogs that ran deer. They pleaded not guilty and were released on bail of $50 in each case, which was furnished by their counsel, R. A. Hoar of Barre. The case was continued to January 18th, when they will appear before Justice O. H. Smith at his house. The offense was alleged to have taken place on Maple Hill December 26th, 1905.

WE WEIGH OUT

More delicious candy in a day than many stores do in a month. The superiority of our Confectionery has made firm friends for us among young and old and many people will walk blocks to get some of Mascott's Candy. And is really worth the trouble. Just try some of our candy and see if it doesn't taste like more.
